Cardinal Staff of "60"

FIRST ROW: L. Bartling, Sports Editor; C. Moore, Senior Editor; L. Kroeger, Cardinal Editor; S. Danskin, Faculty Editor; C. Mintken, Business Manager. SECOND ROW: M. Smeal, Advertising Manager; M. Schafersman, Assistant Cardinal Editor; S. Shepard, Assistant Advertising Manager; J. Janssen, Class Editor. THIRD ROW: J. Hansen, Photographer; M. Clausen, Activities Editor; J. Derfmeyer, Sales Manager; C. Hocking, Art Editor; E. Kraemer, Assistant Business Manager. NOT PICTURED: D. Peters, Activities Editor; Mr. Johnson, Sponsor.

Lois Kroeger served as Editor of the 1960 Cardinal. Through her excellent supervision, the annual was completed on time. Assistant Editor was Mary Schafersman. Besides helping supervise the production, she was a great help in the advertising campaign.

A good job was done by Cindy Mintken, as Business Manager, and Emily Kraemer as assistant. Cindy managed all business affairs and correspondence for the Cardinal. Emily also proof read and helped in the Activities section.

Selling annuals was the sole responsibility of Jerry Dorfmeyer, Sales Manager. The position of Advertising Manager was capably filled by Marilyn Smeal. Her assistant was Sharon Shepard. Due to the efforts of these three, the annual's financial problems were solved.

Judy Hansen served as the photographer, taking most of the pictures for the Cardinal. She was assisted by Jerri Janssen and Sandi Danskin. Jerri also served as Underclassmen Editor, and Sandi, as Faculty Editor.

Senior Editor, Carolyn Moore, had the task of organizing the Senior section. Sports Editor, Lila Bartling, designed and produced the Sports section of the Cardinal, as did all section editors. Doris Peters and Margie Clausen, Activities Editors, had a big job, which they completed very satisfactorily.

As Art Editor, Cecil Hocking did a lot of the artwork for the other sections, helping wherever he was needed.

Each member of the staff helped in selling advertising space, and many snapshots were contributed by friends and classmates.

A special thanks is due to Mr. Bill Robley and Mr. Dale Feenstra, who were willing to give some of their time to take pictures for the Cardinal.

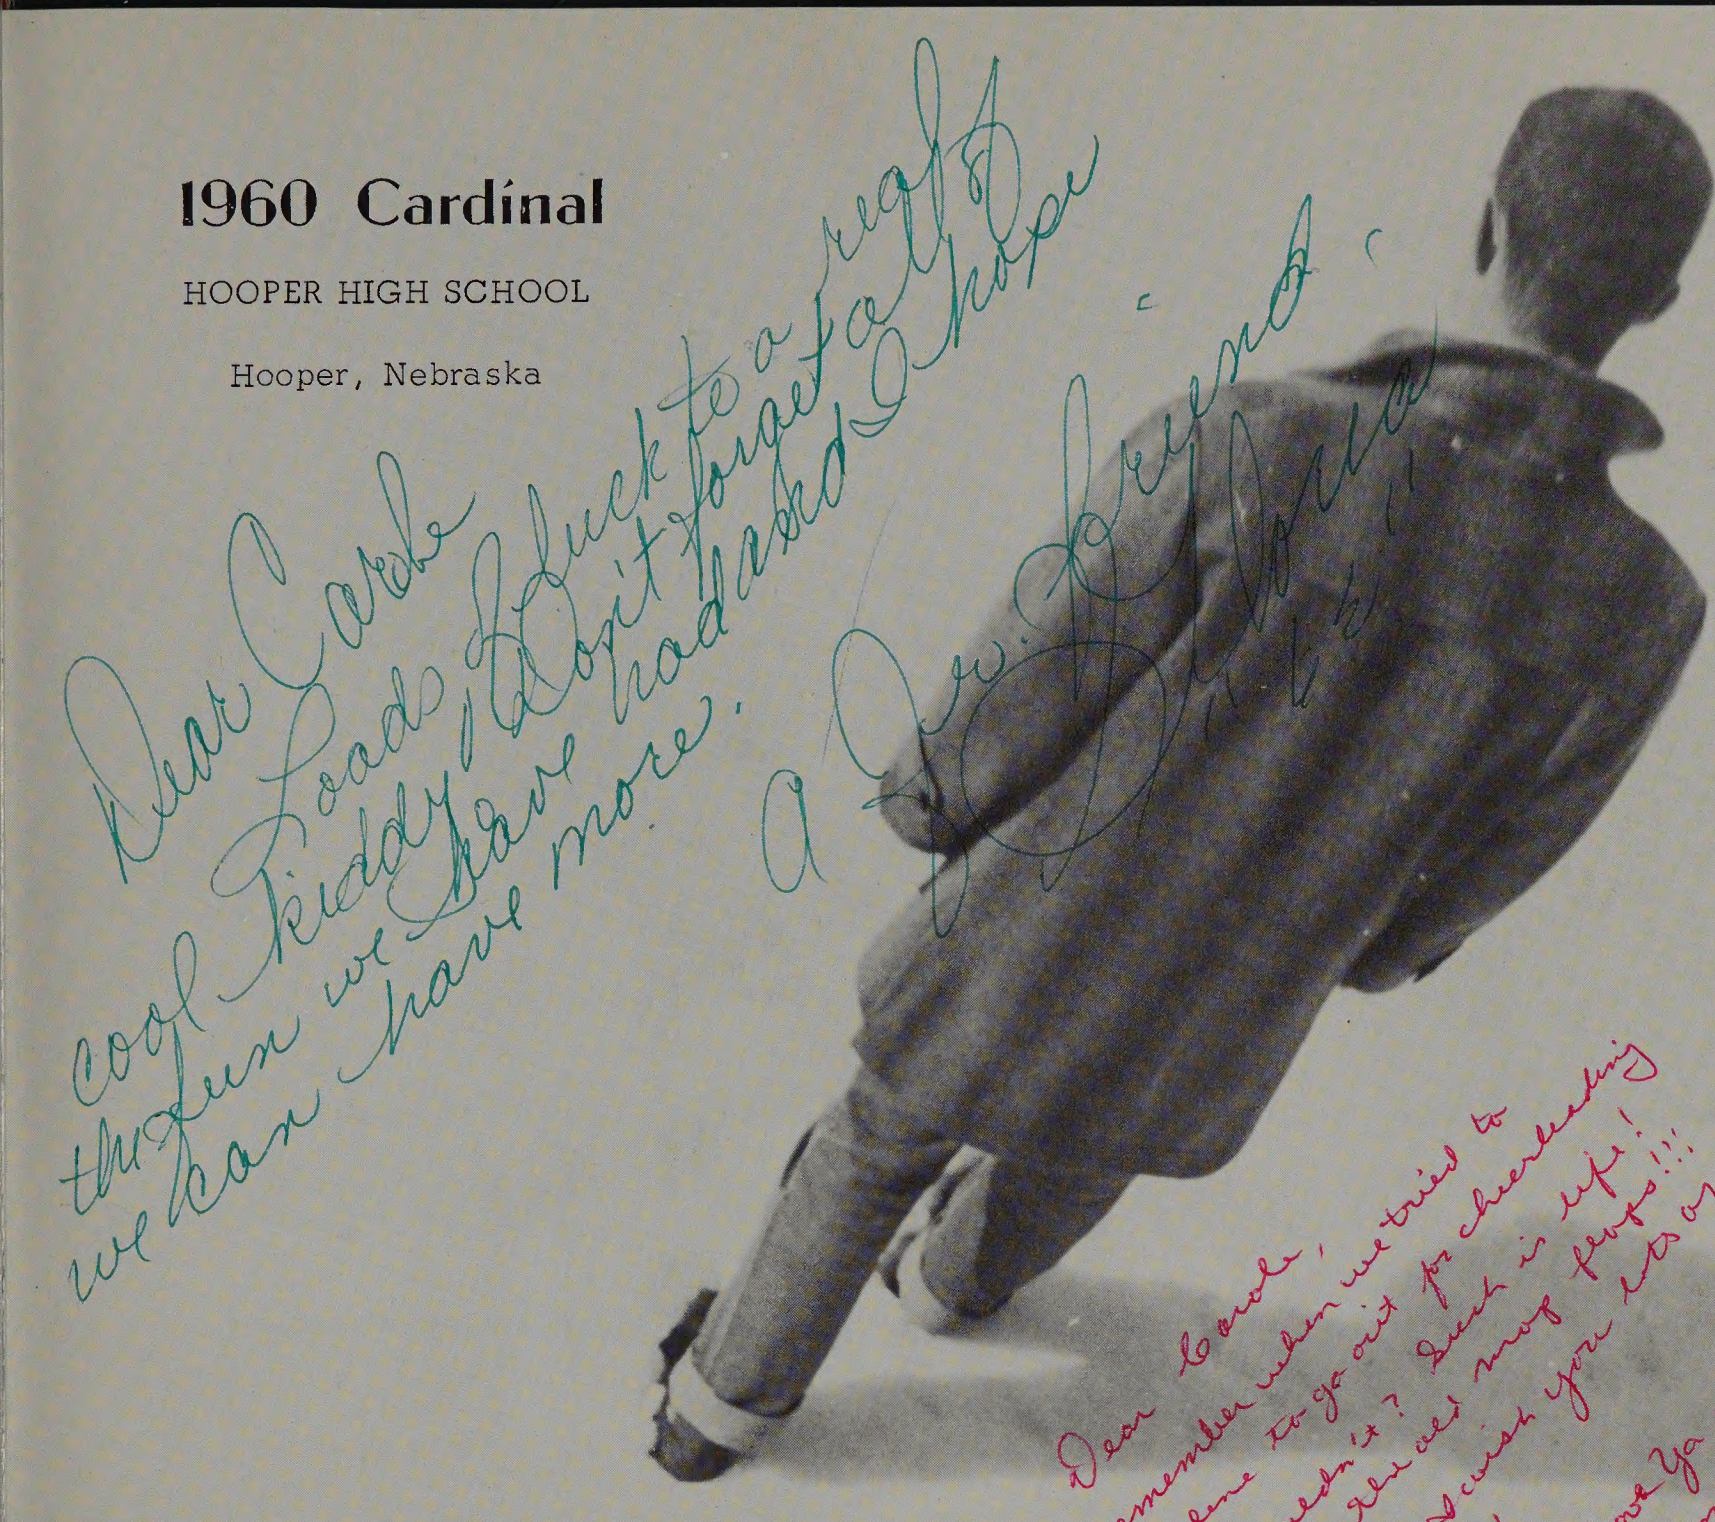
HOOPER HIGH SCHOOL

Hooper, Nebraska



Dedication

As the student departs from Hooper High School he leaves behind a pattern of footprints representing his success, his disappointments, his pleasures, and his hardships. The pattern of each student is significant and remains forever a part of the school. Like footprints his experiences here leave upon his memory an indelible impression which he carries with him through life.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

The grade school presented, on February 22, an operetta entitled "Cowboy on the Moon." The cast of characters was composed of the fifth grade students with the chorus groups from the other grades. Assisting the grade school teachers was George Barlow, music instructor.

The cooks left to right are: Ella Geisler, Mollie Schiessler, and Ida Basler. It takes a lot of patience to be a school cook, but congratulations are in order for these three ladies. They've done a fine job this year.

Here's a lady who's never too busy to help. She is the school secretary, Mrs. Fellows.

A big "Thank-You" goes to the two custodians who keep our school clean. They are Ed Peters and Clarence Hiebenthal.

Last minute instructions

The Juniors were very busy the whole year. They started the year by ordering their class rings which they are very proud of. They also won third prize for their float in the Homecoming parade. Nearly all of them got to attend County Government Day in Fremont November 23; and December 4 they gave their Junior Class Play.

By having a New Year's Eve Watch party, picking up corn, and having a slave day, they managed to raise the money needed for their banquet and prom May 6.

All in all they had a very busy and exciting year and are all looking forward to becoming "mighty" Seniors next year.

The forty-eight Sophomores started their second year of High School very slowly. Then on November 6, at the Homecoming parade, their float won second prize.

To help raise money for the banquet and prom that they will give in their Junior year, they picked up corn twice. Also to help raise money, they gave a Spring Dance March 19 in honor of the fine job the basketball boys did during the season

On August 31 forty-three "green" Freshmen entered the doors of Hooper High, only to find out that on September 4 they would be put through the paces of initiation. After a fun-filled day for all, the Seniors gave a dance in honor of them in the gym.

The Freshmen also busied themselves by making a float for the Homecoming parade November 6 and on February 13 they sponsored the annual Valentines Dance. At the dance, Cindy Mintken and Dan Schaulis were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

Revision of the constitution and cooperation with school policies featured the 1959-60 school year for the Pep Club.

Combination membership and attendance cards facilitated a check-up for points earned. Attendance at away-from-home games was increased because of the use of the school bus and school-sponsored cars.

Members had charge of the concessions at the Auditorium during the basketball game season.

HOMECOMING

Queen Cynthia and King Ron

"I could have danced all night"

One of the outstanding high-lites of the school year at Hooper High is Homecoming which took place on November 6, 1959.

The Homecoming started with a parade through downtown Hooper featuring floats made by the classes and other class organizations. First prize of $15 went to the F.F.A., second prize of $10 went to the Sophomore class, and third prize of $5 went to the Junior class. The queen candidates: Cynthia Mintken, Joanie Liston, Carolyn Moore, Lila Bartling, and Shirley Havekost; and the King candidates: Ron Moll, Dan Schaulis, Lyman Larsen, and Jerry Dorfmeyer, rode in the parade in two colorful convertibles.

Following the game the annual Homecoming Dance was held. The candidates walked through an isle of Pep Club girls up to the stage where the 1958 King and Queen: Gary Nott and Karen Havekost crowned the King and Queen of 1959--Ron Moll and Cynthia Mintken. After the coronation the King and Queen and candidates led the dancing to the music of Les and His Merry Men.

Each librarian is trained in indexing, processing, book repairing, and serving at the main desk. The Omaha Public Power Co. has donated the new desk, which has answered our need for more space.

Special reference materials have been added to our stacks this year. Non-book materials and a five-year Maga-file of periodicals are proving valuable in the preparation of research papers.

The Journalism Class published an edition of the "Cardinal Confidential" every two weeks. The paper contained an editorial, senior sketches, sports, a feature, and gossip.

The Junior Class presented 'We Shook The Family Tree' on December 4, 1959.

An innocent young girl named Hildegarde is trying to attract a date for the Prom by winning the school debate. Her mother fears she may miss the big dance, so arranges a date. Hildegarde is in ecstasy although she doesn't know the boy's name, she lays it on thick--until the prospective date sounds like a Hollywood star. But her mother has picked the one boy in school who wears knickers! He's a swell guy, but those short pants make him the joke of the school. Hildegarde learns the truth and pleads to break the date, but Father is mad. Furthermore, the knicker-attired date, Freddie, is the son of Father's boss. Father, worried about his job, invites his boss home to prove how sensible his family is. But Hildegarde, her face smeared with beauty clay, dashes screaming into the room. Then Freddie bursts into the room with long pants and Hildegarde's brother tackles the boss by mistake. But all works out, for Freddie gets a new suit. The curtain closes as Hildegarde and Freddie leave for the Prom.

All will agree the Junior class presented a very delightful play.

"Dig those jazzy knickers!!"

"Look Pop, long pants!!"

What a nice-looking couple.

Down the hatch!!!

Senior Night, April 27, turned out to be just as funny as it was fun.

The program included a dialogue and a monologue by little girls, The Gary Less Show, a scene at MacDuffy's Tavern with a real Polka Band, some Oriental Dancers, a musical act-up, a pantomime, and a playgirl who bothered the M.C. Even the commercials were hilarious. The only serious part of the program was at the end, when the class will was read and the entire Senior class joined in the singing of "Halls Of Ivy."

One, two, three!!!

We done it!!!

Sneak Day

This was Sneak Day. The seniors left at 5:00 a.m. for Omaha. On the way down, they stopped for breakfast and for a tour of Boys Town.

The rest of the day was filled with a trip to a radar control tower, lunch at the Town House, tour through KMTV Studios and a stop-off in the business district.

The Fireside Restaurant was the scene of the evening meal, and the Orpheum Theater provided entertainment for the evening.

"Hawaiian Cruise" was the theme carried out for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and Prom held at the high school gym, May 6. A straw hut and palm trees were placed on the stage for the center of attraction with water skis and guitar to add to the atmosphere. A blue crepe paper ceiling with millions of silver stars, the walls decorated to resemble water and sand, and hundreds of flowers made the perfect replica of the location: Beach of Waikiki. The tables were decorated with pineapples, hats, and leis.

Bob Olson and his band provided the music for the Prom that immediately followed the Banquet.
